PREFACE.

THE collection of works forming the present Pennsylvania State Library was begun prior to 1777. The first record of its existence is found in a reference to it in the minutes of the Supreme Executive Council of that year ordering the removal of the books for safe keeping from Philadelphia to Easton. After the return of the Council from Lancaster where its sessions were held during the British occupation of Philadelphia, the books were returned. The Senate and House of Representatives, after the adoption of the first constitution, ordered the purchase of books for their respective uses. But in 1810, by act of assembly, the three libraries were consolidated into a single State Library. The number of volumes at that time is unknown, as there is no existing catalogue of the Library at that period. In 1829, the date of the first printed catalogue, the Library contained 4,838 volumes. Ten years later a second catalogue was published which showed a library of 11,577 volumes, which had increased to 21,923 in 1859, the date of the third catalogue. The fourth catalogue, prepared during the years 1872-73, showed an increase of 6,000 volumes, and the fifth, prepared in 1878 by O. H. Miller, Librarian, and J. R. Orwig, assistant, showed that, January 1, 1878, the Library contained approximately 34,000 volumes.

In 1867, the Library was removed to the old Capitol building where it remained until November, 1894, when it was transferred to its present commodious quarters in the fire-proof building erected for its especial accommodation.

The preparation of a card catalogue of the general library was authorized by act of assembly of 1899, which made an appropriation of six thousand dollars for that purpose and for the proper classification of the books.

The work of reclassifying on modern scientific library principles was immediately begun by a force of trained librarians acting under the supervision of the State Librarian, assisted by Major James E. Pilcher, U. S. A., and was pushed to a rapid completion. The preparation of the cards was commenced June 1, 1899, and completed in September. The catalogue shows 98,622 bound volumes, 6,537 pamphlets. It is arranged in handsome steel cases, each case containing 120 drawers, making a total of 240, affording accommodation for 240,000 cards. Under this system, books are catalogued immediately upon their reception, thus affording at all times a complete working catalogue for the use of those desiring to consult the various works of the Library.

The Law Department of the State Library has always received careful attention, and to-day it ranks with the best law libraries of the State, and is among the chief state law libraries of the country.

The Legislature of 1897 authorized the publication of a Catalogue of the Law Books of the Library, and its preparation which had already been inaugurated by Dr. William H. Egle, then Librarian, was continued to completion by the former cataloguer, under direction of Dr. George Edward Reed, the present head of the Library Department. The work as it now stands is complete up to January 1, 1898. For law books received subsequent to that date, reference may be had to the law division of the permanent card catalogue of the Library. It is in contemplation to issue, from time to time, supplements to the present work, the preparation of which will be readily accomplished by the utilization of the cards to which reference has been made.

Law Terms.

The Law terms were originally timed by the Church festivals from which they take their names.

By Act, 1 William IV, it was provided that in A. D. 1831, and afterwards, the terms shall commence and end as follows:

Hilary Term,	Jan. 11 to Jan. 31.
Paschal or Eastern Term,	April 15 to May 8.
Trinity Term,	May 22 to June 12.
Michaelmas Term,	Nov. 2 to Nov. 25.

By the Judiciature Act of 1873, the terms above mentioned have been abolished as to the administration of justice.

"The division of the legal year into terms shall be abolished, so far as relates to the administration of justice; and there shall no longer be terms applicable to any sitting or business of the High Court of Justice, or of the Court of Appeal, or of any Commissioners to whom any jurisdiction may be assigned under this Act, but in all other cases in which, under the law now existing, the terms into which the legal year is divided, are used as a measure for determining the time at or within which any act is required to be done, the same may continue to be referred to for the same or the like purpose, unless and until provision is otherwise made by any lawful authority."—[Judicature Acts, 1873-75, p. 28.]

REPORTS.

The Law Reports.

The publication of the Law Reports was commenced in 1886, under the direction of an "Incorporated Council of Law Reporting." They were first bound, as indicated in the first table of the law reports, under eleven different titles; but in 1875, the arrangement

*Although Charles II did not ascend the throne until 29th May, 1660, his regnal years were computed from the death of Charles I, January 30, 1649, so that the year of his restoration styled the twelfth of his reign.

England.

of the Reports was changed. The cases included under the three titles, "English and Irish Appeal Cases," "Scotch and Divorce Appeal Cases," and "Privy Council Appeals," were thereafter published under the title, "Appeal Cases;" the cases included under the titles "Chancery Appeal Cases" and "Equity Cases" were published under the title, "Chancery Division;" the cases included under the titles, "Crown Cases Reserved" and "Queen's Bench," were published under the title, "Queen's Bench Division;" the cases included under the titles "Admiralty and Ecclesiastical" and "Probate and Divorce" were published under the title, "Probate Division;" "Common Pleas" was continued as "Common Pleas Division," and Exchequer" as "Exchequer Division." This left the Law Reports in six divisions; and they continued to be so published until 1880, when, after the publication of Vol. 5, "Common Pleas Division," and Vol. 5, "Exchequer Division," these two divisions were merged in the "Queen's Bench Division." There are now but four publications: "Chancery Division," "Queen's Bench Division," "Probate Division" and "Appeal Cases."
